

The Tenderfoot Farmer

It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations.

It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak," the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness.

To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use.

In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper.

Don't let a dealer delude you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

ADJOINING COUNTY.

Fred Lake, a Mercer county convict, was pardoned and the figure 13 seems to controvert every important event in his life. He was born on the 13th, was accused of committing an assault on the 13th, sister-in-law on the 13th, was arrested on the 13th, tried and convicted on the 13th, sentenced to 13 years in the penitentiary, was received at the penitentiary on the 13th, was pardoned on the 13th, and he is the 13th child of his parents. When he was released the money at the penitentiary awaiting for him amounted to $13 13.

The Floyd county, Ind. grand jury Saturday returned an indictment against Thomas Jefferson Hoal charging him with murder in the first degree in having shot and killed Jacob Hangary Fawcett, with the purpose of robbery. Hoal will be kept at the State reformatory at Jeffersonville pending his trial.

The celebrated trial of Mme. Margherita Steinheil at Paris ended with an acquittal after the jury had deliberated two and one-half hours. Mme. Steinheil was charged with the murder of her husband and her step-mother, Mme. Japy. The announcement of the verdict was the cue for a great demonstration by the crowd in court and 10,000 persons massed in the street outside.

LIVINGSTON

Ike Dooley of Mullins Station, was here on business Saturday.—Uncle Elsha Carpenter is very low and not expected to live.—Charles Kenner, of Pittsburg, Ky., was with our merchants this week.—Mrs. Sue Mullins is repairing her house on Main street.—Egbert Hayes of Jellico, Tenn., was here a few days ago, and is having his house repaired.—The L. & N. carpenters are rebuilding the oil and tool house which was burned about a week ago.

In our letter concerning the election of the Town Board we neglected to mention Hon. Sam Ward, who was elected a member also. We are sorry we failed to get his name, but man is simply a bundle of mistakes and we are not an exception to that rule.—J. H. Walton and H. W. Bowman have gone into the butcher business. Any one having any butchering to be done will do well to call on them. The reason we recommend them is because they are so swift with their work. They were six hours killing a calf and had a hand to help them.—W. H. Burton went to tie Sinks Friday and arrested Will Reece on the charge of selling whiskey and took him to Mt. Vernon.—John Sebern and family left Saturday for Jackson county to attend the "Holy Rollers" meeting. They claim they are having a fine meeting there.

Charley Whitehead received a letter Friday from Stanford revealing to him that he was the father of a fine son. Oh, the impatience that poor Charlie did undergo from that time until the arrival of the train is not to be imagined or even guessed at. Mrs. Whitehead has been at Stanford for the past month.

—Jim Walk, Obe and Mrs. James Mullins took their bounds and went to Crooked Creek Saturday to take a week's fox hunt. Any one wishing a good time should join the chase, for if ever any one enjoyed life it is a Mullins.—The Mormons, or "Latter Day Saints," are here trying to drum up a congregation; they preached on the street Saturday to a few. We know it is not right to judge, but we judge them by their past history. They claim that Joe Smith and Brigham Young were true Prophets and they are followers of them. Now, we full well know the history of them and if this was not enough we know the history of the Mountain Meadow massacre in which 13 emigrant wagons were crossing the plains and their occupants were all killed, history says by Mormons and Indians. Of course there is no one here that believes in them, for there are none so ignorant as to believe in polygamy or a plurality of wives.—This morning the Mormon Elders checked their grips and shook the dust off their feet as a witness as they call it against Livingston and departed. Their absence is a pleasure. Of course none would believe their teachings except a few ignorant men and by a few women, for after reading their history and know what we have learned about them even their name mentioned in our presence bites like a serpent and stings like an adder.

Mrs. Sue Mullins, who has put down more concrete than any other person in town has begun the repairing of all her houses. Gloomy times does not worry her. We are bound to exclaim in the language of holy writ: "Blessed are the widows".

S. E. Pennington is painting his new house.—Mrs. Lou Jones, of Mt. Vernon is with her sister, Mrs. T. J. Pennington, here this week.—A Mr. Robinson, of Jackson county, has moved into F. McClure's property on the peak of Pennyridge.—App Taylor and E. J. Anderson have reduced their force on the section six men each. This is something they can't help, but we are at a loss to know what will be next.—Charley Rice is the boss fisher, Monday he landed a 10 pound bass. Just imagine his feelings at that particular moment.

—James Burton is working nights at the restaurant.—Alf Pie has gone to Knoxville to accept a job bracking.—Little Liza Sower, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Will Hanks, has returned to her home at Mt. Vernon.

THE DIME NOVEL.

The case of the 17 year-old boy of Louisville, Ky., who did a modern Jack Sheppard deed, with one man dead and two others dying, is laid at the door of sensational dime novels. Probably much of the inspiration for boy's deed came in just that way. Its enormity is such that unless he had been a child of the devil himself, he could not have nerved himself to its commission except by long and continuous reading and pondering of criminal methods as contained in stories of a certain type. In defense of the cheap type of blood and thunder story, with its "Bang! Bang!" of revolver shots, punctuating at stated intervals a narrative always dealing with bad characters, it may be urged that evil gets its just reward in the end and that good is triumphant. The hero is the young fellow who runs incredible risks and saves the heroine, or baffles a hundred pursuers. That is true enough. But opposed to the good, in order to furnish the proper height of interest, there must be the bad also. The good people, it may be urged, are the only ones meant for emulation. But not unstrangely the bad people make just as deep and lasting an impression and the moral lesson of the cheap and highly colored tragedy goes by reverses just as often as not. Ordinarily one fails to see wherein the cheap novel does anything save to create a false notion of life, to furnish wrong ideals and to turn impressionable youths in the wrong direction.—Evansville Journal News.

Within the last few years there has been a tendency to regard the dime novel as an evil of the past. Boys of yesterday, now grown men, have recently been wont to tell of the baneful influences of the cheap trash which they used to read and to regard the tales of desperadoes and robbers bold as things of the past. The "yellow backs," however, seem to be abroad in the land and perhaps by quite as large a majority as ever.

Apparently unbalanced, as a result of too much reading of dime novel variety, the boy bandit (Hoal) tried his hand at robbing, shot down three in cold blood before he was finally captured and will have to answer for one murder, if not three.—South Bend Tribune.

What Have You to Show for Your LABORS.

The only witness you have is the money you save.

A person able to earn money is, with the Peoples Bank also capable of saving a part of it.

The right way is to send or bring what money you can spare to the bank for safe keeping.

The right time is when you get your pay for your labor count out what you owe and send balance to Peoples Bank rather than carry it about with you, and after having started a bank account you will feel far more independent for you will be able to meet future obligations and emergencies and sickness.
